Your Path to Home Ownership

Buying a home can seem overwhelming, and there is an enormous amount of information on the internet that can at times be conflicting and confusing. Our goal is to take the confusion out of the process for you – and help you take it one step at a time.

This guide will be helpful to you regardless of where you are in your home buying process. Learn about the steps chronologically, skip to the step that's up next for you, or explore the steps you're not already familiar with! Each page has information about the step as well as additional resources located in the right hand column. You can click on some sections to expand them for more information. We're excited to help you on your path to home ownership.

And don't forget to take advantage of Coastal Housing Partnership's Home Buying Savings Program to save money on your transaction! Find out how to save money here.
